

List of basic areas of forensic examination and sections

| No. | Basic forensic examination areas | Department* |
|-----|--|-------------|
| 1. | General biological examination – biological traces | BIO |
| 2. | Morphological examination of human and animal hair | BIO |
| 3. | Human DNA examination | BIO |
| 4. | Examination of textile fibres and textiles | BIO |
| 5. | Examination of papillary lines - dactyloscopy | DAC |
| 6. | Examination of footwear | DAC |
| 7. | Examination of handwriting | DOC |
| 8. | Examination of documents | DOC |
| 9. | Examination of banknotes and coins | DOC |
| 10. | Examination of weapons – ballistics | PHYS |
| 11. | Examination of tools – mechanical traces | PHYS |
| 12. | Examination of fires and explosions | PHYS |
| 13. | Examination of tyres | PHYS |
| 14. | Examination of light bulbs | PHYS |
| 15. | Examination of traces on shooter's hands | PHYS |
| 16. | Examination of glass | PHYS |
| 17. | Examination of soil | PHYS |
| 18. | Examination of photographs and videos | PHYS |
| 19. | Examination of coatings on objects (paints, varnishes, paint sprays) | CHEM |
| 20. | Examination of explosives and explosions | CHEM |
| 21. | Examination of flammable liquids and fires | CHEM |
| 22. | Examination of illicit drugs | CHEM |

* ABBREVIATIONS: BIO – Biological Examination Section; DAC – Dactyloscopy Section, DOC – Documents Examination Section NAC/CNAC, PHYS- Physical Examination Section, CHEM – Chemical Examination Section