INTERPOL International Fugitive Round-Up and Arrest (INFRA-RED)

Tibor Theodor FOCO

Wanted by: Austria

Wanted for: Murder

FOCO in 1993

Case details: In 1995 FOCO escaped from an Austrian jail where he was serving a life sentence for the fatal shooting of a prostitute in March 1982.

A professional motorbike rider and former winner of the Austrian Motorbike Championship, during his imprisonment FOCO made regular accompanied trips to a University in Linz as part of his studies for a law degree. It was during one of these University day trips that FOCO escaped. A set of keys to a rented motorbike, a change of clothes and food had been left for him in a toilet block. He escaped with a black backpack and a sleeping bag.

Whilst in prison, FOCO built relationships with a number of women through correspondence and it is believed that FOCO persuaded one or more of these women to help him escape.

FOCO speaks English, French and Hungarian and is believed to have travelled to Hungary and also to the North Carolina and Florida areas of the United States. His current location is unknown.
